

VIDCON CODE OF CONDUCT

Revised: July 12, 2018

It is vital to us that VidCon London be a safe place for all attendees. VidCon London is a private event, and people who mistreat or disrespect other people will be removed and not allowed for the duration of the event. VidCon reserves the right to permanently ban attendees and guests who do not comply with the code of conduct, including for future events put on by VidCon LLC.

Please use good judgment and be respectful, as we'll dislike throwing you out almost as much as you'll dislike being thrown out. Also, please keep in mind that we are sharing the convention center campus and hotels with others, and it is our duty to be friendly neighbors. Not everyone "gets" this thing we are all into. Let's show everyone that we are a positive and friendly group. By registering to be in attendance at VidCon, you hereby agree to the following:

ACCESS

VidCon badges are required for attendance to all official VidCon events. Badges must be worn around the neck and visible at all times. Badges and wristbands are non-transferable.

We do not clear rooms between events. All activities have limited capacity as set by the Fire Marshal, so even though your badge and wristband are required to access all activities, it does not guarantee you access to any activity if it has reached its capacity.

All Meet & Greets are of a limited nature and your VidCon badge and wristband do not guarantee autographs or photos in the Meet & Greet Hall.

FEATURED CREATORS

The Featured Creators who participate in VidCon London are excited to see attendees, but please be respectful. They need to be safe and ensure all attendees are safe while moving around the event, so do not run at or crowd around Creators in public walkways, near escalators, or around doorways.

Creators also need to take a break at their hotel, so attempting to follow them to their rooms, riding the hotel elevators, waiting in the hotel lobby, or any other similar behavior is prohibited. Purchasing a VidCon pass does not guarantee that you will meet a particular Featured Creator.

HARASSMENT

Disorderly conduct includes (but isn't limited to) any behavior that is illegal, unsafe, disruptive, discriminatory or causes excessive discomfort to our attendees or guests. If someone doesn't want to talk to you, don't keep talking to them. If you do not have permission to touch someone, do not touch them. Please view our Anti-Harassment Policy for more information.

Pranks that are emotionally or physically harmful to any people or property at VidCon, actually or potentially, are prohibited. If we hear about anyone pranking in ways that are disruptive to the well-being of our guests or attendees, disciplinary action may be taken, including being banned from future events put on by VidCon.

LISTEN TO STAFF

All VidCon London attendees and badge purchasers must adhere to the instructions of all VidCon employees and agents, all security employees and agents, the staff of ExCeL London, and any and all law enforcement personnel.

PROHIBITIONS

Alcohol, drugs, weapons, and items that can be mistaken as weapons are expressly prohibited, even if they are part of a costume. Masks or other headpieces that cover the entire face are not allowed. Large backpacks are not allowed, and small backpacks and other similar containers are subject to search and may be prohibited. Unlawful sale or attempted sale of badges and wristbands will result in the revocation of those credentials without refund.

IMAGE RELEASE

This is the part where we go ahead and state the obvious. VidCon London is an event produced by, for, and about online video enthusiasts. As such, VidCon London may be recorded or reproduced by VidCon, its designees, and/or attending participants. By registering to be in attendance at VidCon London, you hereby authorize VidCon, its designees, and/or attending participants to record, transcribe, modify, reproduce, perform, display, transmit and distribute in any form and for any purpose any such recordings of VidCon London. By registering for VidCon London you hereby release VidCon, its designees, and/or its attending participants from any and all claims it or its employees or agents may possess, now or in the future, in connection with such activities.

MINORS

VidCon is an all-ages event. An attendee's age may affect whether they need a ticket and if they are permitted to attend on their own:

Minors 8 & under do not need a ticket but must be accompanied by an adult (18+) who has purchased a ticket to attend VidCon London. Minors between the ages of 9 and 12 must have a VidCon ticket and must be accompanied by a ticketed adult (18+) at all times.

Minors 13 or older are not required to be accompanied by a chaperone if it's OK with their parent/guardian. If a parent/guardian would like to accompany their child in any capacity, they need a ticket to attend VidCon.

Parents or adult supervisors of minors are responsible for the actions of minors they are supervising. Minors may be prohibited from certain areas due to the sale of alcohol at certain locations.

LIABILITY

You assume any and all risks occurring before, during, or after VidCon London. You release VidCon and ExCeL London and their agents, licensees, assignees, and their respective affiliates and representatives from any related claims.

VIDCON TERMS OF USE

All VidCon London attendees and guests are required to adhere to this Code of Conduct. The VidCon badge, which is required for admittance to all VidCon London activities, is a revocable license. VidCon or its designees may, without refund, revoke this license for noncompliance with these terms or for disorderly conduct.

ANAHEIM CONVENTION CENTER TERMS OF USE

Attendees of VidCon London agree to observe and comply with any and all policies, rules, and regulations of ExCeL London (London International Exhibition Centre plc). VidCon or its designees may, without refund, revoke this license or refuse admission for failure to observe and comply with any and all policies, rules, and regulations of ExCeL London. Attendees of VidCon agree to observe and comply with all laws, statutes, ordinances, rules and regulations of the Government of England, the County of Greater London, and the City of London.

VidCon reserves the right to change or modify any policy or rule at any time and without notice.
